COUNTDOWN TO MASTERS GAMES

The countdown to the Alice Springs Masters Games is underway with entry forms to be sent around the world.

Minister for Sport Matthew Bonson said this year’s staging of the Masters is expected to be best ever.

“Sport is a great part of the Territory lifestyle – and the Northern Territory Government is proud to support the 12th staging of the Alice Springs Masters Games,” Mr Bonson said.

“Registrations open tomorrow and we’re sending out 17507 entry forms to competitors around Australia and overseas, including New Zealand, the United Kingdom and the US.

“This year’s Masters will have 35 sports, everything from golf and swimming, to athletics and netball.”

If competitors enter before June 30 they go in the early bird draw with five merchandise packs to win.

Entries close on Saturday 9th August at 5pm - the Games office, 1st Floor Alice Plaza will open on that Saturday from 9am - 5pm

Registrations will also be available online as of the 1st February at www.alicespringsmasters.nt.gov.au or you can make a freecall to 1800 658 951.

The Games will be staged from October 11 to 18 – hope to see you there.
