PUBLIC’S POO PATROL PESSIMISM
John Elferink MLA

Date 29th January 2011

“The Territory Government’s much publicized ‘Poo Patrols’ are a lesson in abject failure,” says Member for Port Darwin, John Elferink.

“On the way to my market stall this morning, I counted at least 15 itinerants lying and sitting on footpaths between the Parap lights and the Parap shops.

“All morning, members of the public have been complaining about the failure of these patrols to bring about significant change.

“This Government has lost control of our streets and their press releases and hollow promises no longer convince anyone.

“Across the Territory our communities are under siege as a result of the Henderson Government’s failed policies. This is maladministration at its most basic and Labor is bereft of ideas.”
