Moss in major retrospective

RENOWED Central Australian artist Rod Moss will have his works feature in a new exhibition at the Araluen Arts Centre.

The new show named “Anatomy Lesson — You. Me. Us” is Moss’ first major retrospective exhibition. It will combine works from his own collection and pieces collected by the arts centre.

Centre director Tim Bol- liston said: “Moss’s work is influenced by Western art masterpieces and the interactions between indigenous and non-indigenous people in Alice Springs.

“His works express an abiding respect and hunger for indigenous perceptions and experience.”

The exhibition opened yestterday and closes in August.

CLP slashes travel costs

ing cuts at the hands of the NT Government but public servants are doing their bit

Education Minister Peter Chandler said that the CLP

by cutting public service travel costs.

“Labor’s bill in 2011-12 for all Education Department interstate and international public service travel, including accommodation, came to nearly $7 million,” he said.

“The total for seven months of travel by the public sector
under the Country Liberals was only $2.9 million.”
