SUNDAY LIFESTYLE

Stars

Aries
March 21 - April 20

There are good stars for this week but there will be sudden and possibly quite unexpected charges which will throw you for a loop. You will also suddenly change your mind on some very important issues this week.

Relationships: Mars, your ruler, in your angle of marriage and intimate relationships will bring plenty of opportunities for the sort of intimacy your soul needs. Unfortunately there will be some interruptions too.

Money: Not much around.

Health: Fairly good.

---

Cancer
June 23 - July 23

Lady Luck will be with you for much of this week. This doesn’t always mean you will win a lottery but it does mean you will do well financially and be able to expand your interests. A dream comes true, a pretty nice dream.

Relationships: Venus and Pluto still in your angle of intimacy continue to bring heightened intimacy. By now the holidays are over so this intimacy is most probably in the balmy evenings when you have time to spare.

Money: Looking good.

Health: Fairly fit.

---

Libra
September 24 - October 23

You will make a series of interesting discoveries. Interesting for you because you will be new to whatever it is but ordinary for those who have been there and done that. A time when you will be very productive.

Relationships: Some of the interesting discoveries will involve partner or perhaps someone whose you won’t come too close. You might have to rethink some of your ideas about who does what and when or why.

Money: Short.

Health: Take care.

Capricorn
December 22 - January 20

Something comes to an end, rather suddenly. This is something you have been trying to arrange for some time but to no avail but suddenly this week, things will go your way. Now is the time to help with replacements.

Relationships: Things are exceptional for love and romance. This is where your mind will dwell for the next few days but this is all right because love and passion can be beautiful. Late in the week looks good.

Money: Improving.

Health: The back.

---

Taurus
April 21 - May 21

The moon in her first quarter brings you to the first real obstacle in a project you started a while ago. This will catch you pretty much by surprise but you can handle surprises. Well you handle them this time.

Relationships: Chilly Saturn still in your angle of marriage and intimacy will continue to pull a bit of a wet blanket over your love life. Fortunately you are smart enough to handle and overcome this situation.

Money: On books.

Health: The back.

Leo
July 24 - August 23

The moon in her first quarter brings a boost to your ego and prestige. I don’t say they will carry you shoulder high through the streets but people will say they admire you. For the lion this is what life is about.

Relationships: The sun, your ruler, in your angle of intimacy focuses your attention on love and passion. I don’t say you will do anything about these things but at least you actually acknowledge their existence.

Money: Good for work.

Health: Good here too.

---

Scorpio
October 24 - November 22

This week brings sudden change, mostly in things to do with work or earning a living. This is where you will have to rethink some of your ideas and make allowance for schedules. A week when you can expect many delays.

Relationships: The moon in her first quarter in your angle of marriage and intimacy brings good vibes to this part of your affairs. You might not be wildly passionate overnight but night will bring happy times.

Money: Some coming.

Health: Fair enough.

---

Aquarius
January 21 - February 19

You will be the centre of attention for things other than your birthday. This pleases you because you have been trying to make things happen for a while but have not been resisted. You know how to handle resistance.

Relationships: You would like some moments of mind numbing passion but the closest you will come to this is in a Mills and Boon novel. At least there will be more harmony in your relationships around the home.

Money: Take care.

Health: The care.

Gemini
May 21 - June 21

The moon in her first quarter brings up matters which are long gone, or at least you thought they were long gone. Unfortunately not everyone feels these things are best forgotten so they bring them up all over again.

Relationships: Mars in your angle of love and romance will bring one or two things. First it will bring action into your life and second it will bring some sort of tension. Which comes first? Who knows?

Money: Small gains.

Health: Feeling fit.

---

Virgo
August 24 - September 23

The bad news is; there will be some hefty bills. The good news is; you have enough money in the bank to pay them. More good news; there will be extra money through work. Just take care with any extra you get.

Relationships: You have plenty of good planets in your angles of love and romance and marriage and intimacy. These planets might not fulfil all your dreams but there will be some happy and memorable moments. And that’s not bad at all.

Money: Bills.

Health: Just so-so.

---

Sagittarius
November 22 - December 21

There are lucky stars around you this week. The stars you have can sometimes bring small but nice wins of one sort or another but mostly they place opportunities your way and it’s up to you to make use of them.

Relationships: There will be changes in this part of your life. These changes will come fairly suddenly and although you won’t be impressed, eventually you will be happy they happened. Could this involve pregnancy? There’s interesting things ahead.

Money: Improving.

Health: Pretty good.

---

Pisces
February 19 - March 20

This week will bring more contact with relatives and neighbours, mostly relatives. You will come up with some ideas which promise to improve the lives of everyone around you. There will also be talk of pets, cute pets at that.

Relationships: Jupiter in your angle of love and romance is good vibes for giving and receiving love and affection. Since this is what Pisces needs most, you should be happy with the way this year is panning out.

Money: A windfall.

Health: Pretty good.
