ANOTHER BROKEN PROMISE FROM THE CHIEF MINISTER

"Remember the election promise?", asks Loraine Braham.

"A mobile police station, fully equipped with self-generating power, radio communications, and office facilities to be fitted out for police needs early in the new financial year?"

"Has it appeared yet? No, and it's not likely to do so until the first quarter of next year, according to the Chief Minister in Question Time today".

Mrs Braham said in view of the violent deaths and numerous assaults with knives, this increased police presence is very necessary in Alice Springs.

"The town needs a highly visible presence patrolling hot spots to help deter the continual violence that is giving our town such a bad name".

"We need to overcome the bad publicity the town is receiving".

"But this government continues to disappoint as it takes this Go-Slow approach".

"Let us return to the well-known Town Like Alice image".
