March 13th, 2012

Member for Araluen, Robyn Lambley, will spend tomorrow morning at a local childcare centre as part of a program to broaden community understanding of the role of child educators.

Ms Lambley will is participating in the ‘Walk in my Shoes’ activity at the YMCA Childcare Centre in Alice Springs between 8am and 1pm.

“I am greatly looking forward to spending time at the ‘Y’, mixing with the workers and parents and, of course, helping out with the children who attend the centre,” Ms Lambley said.

“I have enormous respect for childcare workers and the role they play in our community and expect tomorrow to be extremely rewarding.”

Further comment: Robyn Lambley 0428 040 693