Gerry Wood, Independent Member for Nelson says he welcomes a review of town communities – not camps – but he wonders why this has been called now when he asked for a review of Darwin Regional Communities back in 2012.

He says that it appears that it just got too hard and after some in house meetings organised by two Government Departments, nothing happened.

Gerry says today’s Public Accounts Committee highlighted some of these town community issues so the review in that sense is timely.