Plan of PORT COCKBURN,

between Bathurst & Melville Islands.

From a survey made by
L. J. S. ROE,
in Oct 1824.
Variation 1° 6 East.

Plan of KING'S COVE

Well wooded land of moderate elevation

Plan of BATHURST ISLAND

Garden Pt
Latitude 27° 14'S. E.
Low by L. Roe 26° 59'S. E.
D° by Capt. King 26° 30'S.
Title: Plan of Port Cockburn between Bathurst & Melville Islands, From a survey made by Lt. J.S.Roe in Octr. 1824.

Date: C1825

Artist: John Septimus Roe (1797 - 1878)

Size: 188mm x 130mm

Technique: Copper engraving.

Condition: In good condition. Vertical fold as issued

Stock Number: ROE AM NT 1825 (AGY) (R004)

Description:
Detailed map of Port Cockburn, Apsley Strait (present day Beagle Gulf), with insets of Fort Dundas and a Plan of King's Cove. The Fort Dundas British settlement was established in September 1824 with the goal of developing trade with Malays. It was a short lived failure and abandoned in February 1829. From, Narrative of a Survey of the Intertropical and Western Coasts of Australia by Phillip Parker King.