MINISTER, STAND BY YOUR SCHOOL!

“The Minister for Employment, Education and Training should be supporting Anzac Hill High School and ensuring this successful school continues”, says Loraine Braham, Independent Member for Braitling.

"The answer to my question yesterday about the future of the school after 2008 indicated that he has rolled over to the proposal to change its use to a youth intervention scheme".

"You would have thought the Minister who is responsible for this school, and who often speaks glowingly of its achievements, would be doing what the previous Minister for Central Australia did".

"Stand by your school, Minister!".
