Rose Chacko died peacefully on Tuesday, October 19, 2010 in Tucson Arizona, where she had lived since April 2009. She was 86 years old. She is survived by her daughter, Rebecca. Rose is also survived by two older sisters Rachel Jacob (USA) and Chinnamma John (India).

Rose was born in Kerala, India and was the youngest of 7 daughters born to N.J. Chacko and Saranya Chacko. She completed her medical education at Christian Medical College (CMC), Vellore, India in 1949. She earned her Diploma in Sexology from the University of Toronto in 1952 and Certification in Child Psychiatry from the University of Fribourg in 1952. Rose returned to CMC, Vellore in 1956 and had a long and distinguished career as Professor and Head of the Department of Psychiatry. She was instrumental in founding Nambikkai Nilayam, a treatment and training center for mentally challenged and handicapped children.

After retiring from CMC in 1981, Rose moved to Australia, to continue practicing Psychiatry. She subsequently moved to Darwin Australia, and continued practicing psychiatry until her retirement in 1989. Rose loved living in the tropics and enjoyed raising orchids and exotic plants. She enjoyed retirement life in a wonderful retirement community in Darwin until April 2009. She was active in the community, the Mahjong group and the University of the Third Age.

At the age of 84, Rose moved to Tucson, Arizona to be close to her daughter, Rebecca and grandson, Justin. Rose made many new friends and adjusted well to live in Tucson. Rose is remembered fondly by friends and family all over the world.
