In 1915, Albert Borella journeyed through 1,000 kilometres of the Northern Territory Outback from Tennant Creek to Darwin to enlist in World War I. He fought at Gallipoli and the Western Front, was wounded, commissioned on the battlefield, and was awarded the Victoria Cross, the highest honour for valor in combat. Albert Borella was one of the many who went to fight for their nation. From 20 February to 3 March 2015, the Borella Ride will symbolically retrace Albert Borella’s footsteps along the Stuart Highway in commemoration of the Anzac Centenary. By commemorating Albert Borella through the Borella Ride, we can reflect on the broader story of Northern Territory development and the significant contribution made by Australians to the First World War.
