Port Darwin covers the CBD and Larrakeyah. The seat has passed between Labor and the CLP over the years, but has been held since 2008 by retiring Attorney-General John Elferink. It is considered a conservative electorate, and one of the seats in the Top End that will be more difficult for Labor to win back.

CAROL PHAYER

PARTY: Independent
AGE: 63
OCCUPATION: Business owner, manager, small business
SUBURB: Larrakeyah and Humpty Doo

What I stand for:
- I believe we have been let down by both political parties and we need a better way to govern the Territory. We need a parliament of people who are working for the Territory and not just the party. We need people with solid life skills, understanding of business and good fiscal restraint, management and how our parliament works. That is why I have attended every Parliament sitting for the past two years.

PAUL KIRBY

PARTY: Australian Labor Party
AGE: 50
OCCUPATION: Future Skills Training coordinator
SUBURB: Darwin

What I stand for:
- I have been an advocate in training and consulting with Territorians and working with all levels of government for the best possible outcome for those I represent. I’ve seen the impact of privatisation of power services in other states, and I will fight to make sure Power and Water is never privatised in the Territory. I will ensure community is consulted and has their voice heard on development matters, like the old hospital/Kahlin compound site.

ROHAN KELLY

PARTY: Country Liberals
AGE: 47
OCCUPATION: Formerly Education and Environment Minister
SUBURB: Darwin

What I stand for:
- I believe progress should be balanced with maintaining the Territory’s unique lifestyle and way of life. I would be honoured to represent the electorate of Port Darwin to help address local concerns and be a strong advocate for residents. Revitalising the CBD and ensuring it is a vibrant, busy and attractive place for businesses, locals and tourists alike is a key goal. I was born and grew up in Darwin, I am passionate about ensuring a prosperous, bright future for Territorians.

MATTHEW BAKER

PARTY: Independent
AGE: 48
OCCUPATION: Businessman
SUBURB: Nightcliff

What I stand for: I’m standing to provide Port Darwin a strong, conservative and experienced independent with a track record of getting the job done. I’ll focus on business, tourism and jobs; a Vibrant Darwin City Plan for better business, clean and green streets and to tackle anti-social behaviour; a new ferry terminal; and will advocate the return of pensioner concessions. I will make sure the next Territory Government works for Territorians and help get the Territory back on track.

DAVID CAMERON

PARTY: Independent
AGE: 39
OCCUPATION: Builder
SUBURB: Darwin CBD

What I stand for: Revitalising the Smith Street Mall by completely shading all areas, Creating business centres for management, finance and IT in the CBD. Tackling vagrancy, loitering and anti-social behaviour within the CBD. Installing traffic calming and digital signs on the roads to Larrakeyah Primary School and promoting the CBD with better transport options and better town planning.

KENNETH WU

PARTY: Independent
AGE: 47
OCCUPATION: Retired pensioner and voluntary worker
SUBURB: Coconut Grove

What I stand for: I am a 67 year old retired Territorian pensioner volunteer, with mobility disability & others. I have 50 years as volunteer for charity and community social justice worker. I will fight for a fair go all Territorians, including pensioners, disadvantaged, the disabled. I will work with local business to lower government costs and reduce the costs of living. I will work to stop the exodus of Territorians. I will also fight to stop corruption and the abuses of politicians.

ANDREW JOHN ARTHUR

PARTY: Country Liberals
AGE: 45
OCCUPATION: Company director, music teacher
SUBURB: Marrara

What I stand for: If I’m not right or left, I’m straight up. It’s about a fair go. For everyone. I’m independent because I’m passionate about representing the community. I will work to keep the community and environment safe; provide the best education and health services; develop the north in a sustainable way; reduce the cost of living and support our seniors. For 35 years I’ve operated a small business and I will bring this experience to parliament.

KATE WORDEN

PARTY: Australian Labor Party
AGE: 48
OCCUPATION: Public servant and small business owner
SUBURB: Marrara

What I stand for: I’ve lived in the northern suburbs for over 20 years, and raised my kids here. As an active community member I understand the unique pressures of living in the Territory and will ensure that we have good schools, support for families and job opportunities. Residents have told me they want me to stand up on issues of crime, cost of living and to repair their trust in government. I will work tirelessly to stand up for the issues that matter.

Sanderson

WAGAMAN PRIMARY SCHOOL, 35 Wagaman Tce, Wagaman
ANULA PRIMARY SCHOOL, Yanyula Drive, Anula

SANDERSON is the Country Liberals’ closest city seat, held by Deputy Chief Minister Peter Styles since 2008. Sanderson covers Walpa, Anula and Marrara, and has a large multicultural community. Styles is expected to be strongly challenged by Labor candidate and Darwin alderman Kate Worden.

TRAVIS DAVIES

PARTY: Country Liberals
AGE: 40
OCCUPATION: Business owner
SUBURB: Anula

What I stand for: Working with aged care, in-home care programs to provide extra help for seniors and the disabled. Ensuring local students attending special education facilities have sufficient teaching and activity support. Restoring in youth respect for senior citizens through school engagement, including Aboriginal elders teaching all primary school students about bush skills.

KAREN LEAHY

PARTY: Country Liberals
AGE: 35
OCCUPATION: Former child protection worker
SUBURB: Marrara

What I stand for: As an active community member I understand the unique pressures of living in the Territory and will ensure that we have good schools, support for families and job opportunities. Residents have told me they want me to stand up on issues of crime, cost of living and to repair their trust in government. I will work tirelessly to stand up for the issues that matter.
