Previous Years.

Note: From 2010 the figure incorporates more than just recurrent funding and caution should be used when comparing to and there was a five per cent increase in numbers in training for the same period.

Figure 44: Annual hours of curriculum for VET 2006 to 2010 (millions)

Apprenticeships and traineeships commenced increased by seven per cent from 2009 to 2010.

Source: DET Training and Higher Education using AYETNSIS data

Figure 43: Apprentices and trainees numbers (000) 2006 to 2010

1465 of which were in occupations on the NT Occupation Shortage List
Over the last three years, more than 3,995 Termination completed an Apprenticeship or Traineeship.
At least 4.1 per cent of Apprentices/Trainees in training were in traditional trades in skill shortage areas.
The NT achieved a record number of Apprentices and Trainees in training in 2010-11 — over 4700.

undertake activities to increase awareness of the VET system across their industry sectors.

provide a link between business, industry and government on labour market policy, planning and

DET ANNUAL REPORT 2010-11