Gearing up for Growth in Palmerston and Litchfield

Budget 2012 is delivering for families in Palmerston and Litchfield, with continued investment in health, education, infrastructure and a range of initiatives to help this dynamic region gear up for growth while supporting affordable living.

Chief Minister, Paul Henderson, said Budget 2012 continued the Government’s commitment to the Territory’s fastest growing region.

“Palmerston and Litchfield are dynamic communities set to directly benefit from the huge economic growth the Territory will experience as a flow on from projects such as the Ichthys LNG project and the Marine Supply Base,” Mr Henderson said.

“With the building of the Palmerston Hospital set to start in the next financial year, Budget 2012 delivers record health funding for the people of Palmerston and Litchfield by supporting families through affordable and quality health services.”

Member for Daly Rob Knight said Budget 2012 was also delivering for families in the region through continued investment in key infrastructure.

“One million dollars from Budget 2012 will be spent on head works for the new Litchfield Pool, $2.75 million will be spent to build a new special education centre at Taminmin College and $1.29 million will be used to upgrade and seal another 6km of Litchfield Road,” Mr Knight said.
The most generous homeowner concessions in Australia

Budget 2012 helps more Territorians achieve their dream of home ownership with the best homeowners’ concessions in the nation, including grants, stamp duty concessions and Territory Government home loans through Homestart NT.

- Budget 2012 extends the BuildBonus scheme providing a $10 000 grant to all homebuyers purchasing or building a new home up to the value of $600 000. The scheme has been extended by six months to 30 June 2012;
