Central Australia’s high achievers honoured

5 February 2015

Top Central Australian students have been honoured at the NT Board of Studies Award presentation in Alice Springs.

Chief Minister Adam Giles congratulated the students on their commitment and dedication.

“These students are shining examples of the remarkable young people we have here in the Northern Territory,” Mr Giles said.

“They have given it their best during their time at school and are now reaping the rewards.

“Seven of the top 20 NTCET completers for 2014 are from Alice Springs Schools - four students from St Philip’s College and three students from Centralian Senior College.”

Chief Minister Adam Giles said 2014 saw some extremely impressive results, with a record 1315 students completing the NTCET in 2014.

“I’d like to congratulate all of those students who completed the NTCET in 2014. A quality education provides the building blocks to a successful future,” Mr Giles said.

“This awards ceremony was a fantastic opportunity to acknowledge the many achievements of Central Australian students.

“I wish them every success for the future,” Mr Giles said.

Among the awards presented were:

- Top 20 2014 NTCET Final Year Students
- Chief Minister’s Award for Most Outstanding Stage 2 NTCET Student of 2014
- Department of Treasury and Finance Mathematics Award
- CDU Top Ten Australian Tertiary Admission Ranked Awards
- Menzies School of Health Research Biology Award
• Law Society NT Legal Studies Award
• NT Indigenous Education Council Southern Region Indigenous NTCET with VET Award
• Ian MacGregor Rotary Award for English Studies
• The Australian Council for Health, Physical Education and Recreation (NT) Physical Education Award

Please see full list of winners attached

Media Contact: Danielle Parry 0413 081 801

Winners List