DARWIN CRUISE WEEK
2-6 March 2015

TOP 5 WAYS TO HAVE A GREAT DAY!

1. Drop into the Visitor Information Centre
   The Tourism Top End Visitor Information Centre is the best place to make the most of your Darwin experience! The centre is a one-stop shop for maps, tour bookings and local advice about what to see and do and best of all – it’s free! Visit us on Bennett Street, near the Smith Street Mall.

2. Cruise in for a great deal wherever you see this sticker!
   Make the most of great deals and exclusive offers available to all passengers and crew for Darwin Cruise Week.

3. Explore the pop-up markets
   Located only a short walk from the Cruise Ship Terminal, stroll down to the Waterfront Market stalls and meet some of Darwin’s most talented artists and craft workers. There will be a wide range of quality items on display including gems, jewellery, art works, crocodile leather goods, homewares and lots more. An ideal opportunity to pick up some unique gifts and mementos of your Darwin visit.

4. Enjoy Live Entertainment
   Sit back, relax and be entertained by some of Darwin’s most popular musicians and performers. There will be live entertainment each day in the Smith Street Mall from 11.30am – 1.30pm. Plus, all day free wi-fi is available!

5. Discover the unique taste of the Territory!
   Don’t leave without indulging all your senses. See over page for some tasty ideas!
