TICKETS GOING FAST

Music fans are being encouraged to get in early for this year’s BASSINTHEGRASS 07 after 1500 tickets were sold in the first week.

Chief Minister Clare Martin said it’s been an incredible response to the event which will be staged on Saturday May 26.

“We have some of Australia’s the biggest bands on show – and the people of Darwin can’t wait to see them,” Ms Martin said.

“People need to get in quick – there are only 6000 tickets at $45 – each ticket will include a complementary cap which will provide entry to the concert.

“Another 1500 tickets will go on sale on the day at $60 – but without a complementary cap.

“The BASSINTHEGRASS 07 acts include Jet, Eskimo Joe, Hilltop Hoods, Young Divas, Shannon Noll, TZU, Behind Crimson Eyes, Little Birdy, Mammal and Lowrider.”

“The local bands will be Enth Degree, The Moxie, The Strikes and The Weathermen.

BASSINTHEGRASS 07 will be held at Darwin Amphitheatre – the 12 hour event kicks off at 11am - tickets are on sale at major CD shops.

The 2007 BASSINTHEGRASS has again signed Savings and Loans Credit Union as naming sponsor.

Alcohol will be available after 5pm. Clearly defined “wet” and “dry” areas will be established with ID check access only to areas where alcohol is sold.

Website: www.bassinthegrass.com.au

Media Contact: Richard O’Leary 040111 9586